

HEATHER HOPPING

Ceramic Artist

Heather's love for porcelain began with her Grandmother's china cabinet, and she started ceramic painting in 1970.

Following four years of study Heather joined the Associated Teachers Institute of Porcelain Art and gained her Diploma.

Accomplishments include:

Exhibiting at the Sydney Royal Easter Show resulting in several First & Second Ribbon prizes

Chief Steward for judging at the Castle Hill Show for 10 years

Heather now enjoys working in her studio at home creating for herself, friends & family, and the Gallery, as well as occasional private commission work.

Her inspiration comes from Australia Flora, Nature and reading books

She still belongs to and is a regular contributor to the Porcelain Artists Association and the Australian Porcelain Art Teachers Association, and regularly attends seminars to keep abreast of the latest techniques and materials available
